

Ms. Ana Ngamoki

Kia hihiri – Information Analyst

Personal statement

I am a confident, committed and responsible person who can work in varied situations and enjoys working in a team or individually. I respond well to challenges and have a positive outlook on life. I complete tasks within tight timeframes, and have an excellent communication and interpersonal skills which enable me to relate to a wide variety of people and situations. I am versatile, reliable and can work well under pressure and maintain high standards with emphasis on accuracy.

Summary of education and qualifications

Primary and High School Education

- 1994 – 1997: Primary School: Te Kura Mana Maori o Maraenui
- 1997: Gained School Certificate Maori
- 1998-2002: Trident High School.
- Qualifications gained: School Certificate Japanese, English, and Biology.
- Bursary Maori, Higher School Certificate.
- 2008 – Complete a Bachelor of Social Sciences majoring in Social Anthropology with a support in Maori and Pacific Development.

Tertiary Education

- 2008 – Now: Currently studying at The University of Waikato, in my second year of a Bachelor of Laws.
- 2007 – Now: Completed level three in Nautical studies through Te Wananga o Aotearoa
- 2008/2009 – Te Rōpū Manukura Internship.
- The purpose of this programme is to ensure that The University of Waikato works in partnership with iwi to ensure that the University of Waikato is meeting the tertiary needs and aspirations of iwi. My role is as intern for Te Runanga o Te Whānau a Apanui. I am responsible for transcribing a series of wānanga pertaining to mōteatea (traditional chants) from the iwi. This compilation of oral history will reside within the Te Whānau a Apanui iwi for future generations.

